

YOUR RIGHT TO APPEAL

We would welcome the opportunity to discuss any concerns or disagreements that parents/carers may have with the decision or the content of an Individual Development Plan (IDP). Please contact the ALN Pupil and Family Support Co-ordinator by email pps@ceredigion.gov.uk or telephone 01545 570881 to discuss or to arrange a meeting.

The Education Tribunal for Wales (ETW) hears and makes decisions on appeals about the additional learning needs of children and young people, and claims of disability discrimination in schools. ETW is an independent tribunal whose decisions are binding on local authorities and responsible bodies who must follow its orders.

Chapter 33 of The Additional Learning Needs Code for Wales 2021 contains information on appeals and application to the ETW.

A child, child's parent or young person may appeal to the Tribunal about:

- a decision by a FEI or local authority as to whether the child or young person has ALN;
- in the case of a young person, a decision by a local authority as to whether it is necessary to prepare and maintain an IDP;
- the description of a person's ALN in an IDP;
- the ALP in an IDP, or the fact that ALP is not an IDP, including whether the plan specifies that ALP should be provided in Welsh;
- the provision included in an IDP by a local authority under sections 14(6) or 19 (4) or the fact that provision under those sections is not in a plan;
- the school named in an IDP for the purpose of admitting a child to a named institution, or if no school is named in an IDP for the purpose of admission;
- a decision by the local authority not to revise an IDP where the local authority has been asked by a child, child's parent, or young person to reconsider an IDP maintained by a maintained school;
- a decision by the local authority not to take over responsibility for an IDP, which is maintained by a school, where it is requested to do so by a child or their parent, a young person or the governing body of that school;
- a decision to cease to maintain an IDP, and
- a refusal to decide a matter on the bases that there is no material change in needs or no new information that materially affects the decision.
